

Mary Jane Mahavier

August 30, 1920 - November 12, 2015

Mary Jane Mahavier passed away on November 12, 2015 at the age of 95. Born on August 30, 1920 in Guatemala, Central America on a banana plantation owned and operated by the United Fruit Company in New Orleans, Louisiana, her father was a railroad superintendent of the said company. All her siblings were born at the United Fruit Company Hospital. After leaving the plantation in 1923, the family settled in Del Rio, TX where he father's parents were pioneers of Del Rio. With the passing of her father, the family moved to San Antonio, TX in 1934.

A graduate of Technical High School, Mary Jane attended Draughon Business College for 2 years in San Antonio. Thereafter, she worked for many years in both jewelry retail and car sales industries. She married and had one son; Don Roger Gill of Manhattan, NY who was raised by her second husband; Warren L. Mahavier. She was a long time member of the Covenant Presbyterian Church of San Antonio, TX. A most loving, faithful, caring, friend, aunt, great grandmother, grandmother, daughter, sister, mother, and wife.

Presided in death are her parents; Milton R and Isabell McDonald Keller, sisters Laura E. Keller and Alice K. Erler, her brother Charles R. Keller, her beloved husband, Warren L. Mahavier, and son, Don Roger Gill. She is survived by her granddaughters, Dorian J. von Aulock of New Jersey and Jessie L. Kalelkar of Massachusetts, her four great grandchildren, nephews, nieces, grandnephews, and grandnieces.

Visitation will begin on Monday, November 16, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. Graveside service will follow at 1:00 p.m. at Mission Burial Park South. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Covenant Presbyterian Church - 211 Roletto Drive, San Antonio, Texas 78213.

For personal acknowledgement, you may sign the online guestbook at www.missionparks.com in the obituary section.