Mary, a kind and caring, woman was born on October 8, 1942, in San Antonio, TX to the late Rosario Juarez and Anita Juarez. She was kindhearted, friendly, a dedicated mother and grandmother, caring sister and friend. She worked as an LVN and supervisor at both the State Hospital and the State School for over 30 years and enjoyed caring for and helping patients and clients. Many patients contacted her to thank her for the wonderful care she provided. Mary was very nurturing and very family oriented. She enjoyed spending time with her granddaughters whom she adored and was very proud of, visiting with her siblings, drinking coffee, watching Law & Order, petting her puppy dog Macho, she loved music, and she was always cleaning and organizing the house.

Regardless of her many health issues she never complained, nor did she ask, “why me.” She always said, “it could be worse.”

Mary is survived by her daughter, Esmaralda Juarez-Jeffries (Eli); grandchildren, Elisha Jeffries-Perez (Oscar), Zoe Jeffries; siblings, Rachel Tello (Manuel), Dee Juarez, Rudy Juarez (Linda); numerous nephews, nieces, extended family, and friends.

The family is deeply grateful to all medical staff that provided excellent care: Dr. Michael Lichtenstein (UT Medicine), Dr. Maria Arbelaez (UT Medicine), who made home visits. Dr. Antonio R. “ Aunt Mary always cared how you were, if you were alright, wanted to know how your life was going. She was a pleasant and sweet woman who cared for any niece or nephew like they were her own children. My favorite memories of her are sitting in Grandma's kitchen, listening to her argue or laugh with my father or her mother. She made the mistake of making me soft boiled eggs once and it went terribly wrong lol, but she took it with a laugh and smile like the good sport she always was.
