Tribute Wall

“ Because I live in Ohio, I wasn't able to visit Mary very often over the years; however, those few times that I did, she was always very gracious and hospitable. I do know that family was her only priority in life; she lived to serve them. She was a wonderful wife to my brother, Tony, a great mother, an astute money manager, and a tireless caregiver to their special needs son, Jason. She was an outstanding example of a good, Christian woman and her death is a great loss to all those fortunate to have known her and who were loved by her.
