“ Rosemary, Mary Lou, and Maria,
Your mother was such a part of everything at Mission Concepcion.
She often wanted to help more than she was able. You daughters, whom I knew the best of the family, were so devoted and caring even when she could be demanding. I remember how you remodeled the family home with such effort to make it more comfortable for her. I have already offered a number of Masses for her at the Village. God love you.
