“ My aunt Mary Lou was like a second mom to me she was always there for me anytime I needed her. She was my guardian angel. She was there for me when I was in danceteam since my mom was in hospital she was on top of mommy duties. I admired her so much I named my first born baby girl after her. She will always b a part of my heart. Luv u Aunt Lulu!!!

“ My Condolences to the Macias family. My Aunt was a wonderful caring person. I will never forget how she and my Uncle Dan took care of us when we were in our early teens while my mom was recovering from surgery. She would have breakfast ready every morning and made sure we made it to school everyday.

My family would always get a laugh on how much she reminded us of Carol Barnett character of Eunice on Mama's Family. Also I remember how serious she would get if you called her while she was watching the Dallas Cowboys and oh don't you dare call when they were losing or lost cause brother you were asking for it.

Thank you again Aunt Lou lou.

Love Pee-Wee and Adame Family.
