“ For the last couple of days here I've tried to think of the best words to use in order to describe what a wonderful person my Aunt Mary Lou was. I've since come to realize that sufficient words do not exist.

Every single time I'd see my Aunt Mary Lou

“ Rosie and family,
I would like to extend my deepest condolences upon the death of your mother. It must be especially hard for you all coming so soon after your father's death.

Fr. Charles Henderson said prayers at Mass this morning for both of them.

“ Rosie,
I know how heartbroken you are right now and I'm so sorry for your loss - I pray that as time goes by your memories will bring smiles, warm feelings, and tears of joy.

I love you.

“ At my aunt Mary Lou's Rosary this evening my cousin Jesse mentioned how strange it was that the Japanese planes flew over as the flag was being handed to Lucy. I wanted to share something that I honestly believe was not just a coincidence.

“ My dearest Mother,
Words cannot explain how I am feeling right now. My heart is heavy at the loss of you and dad. I would never have imagined that I would lose you both so fast.

I can hardly think of what life is going to be like without the both of y
