“ Hi Aunt Mary! I am sure you can hear me now that you are with my Mom, Dad and Uncle Bebe. I know you are all happy being together again. I remember times when we would be visiting Grammo when I was around 5 and misbehaving and you very gently let me know what I was doing was not good. I looked at your kind and caring eyes and knew you were right and I was doing wrong. I also remember you getting on Uncle Bebe's big black motorcycle looking pretty in your really cool looking black leather jacket with silver zippers. And then you road off together. I thought that was so neat! Take care of each other and we will all be together again some time in God's house. Love, jr. / John A. Campa III, MD, Albuquerque, New Mexico
