

Mary Louise Moran

April 15, 2012 - April 15, 2012

Mary L. Moran passed away peacefully on April 13, 2012 at the age of 73. She was born on July 19, 1938 in San Antonio, TX to Alejandro Vargas and Carolina Ramirez Vargas. She worked at Kelly Air Force Base as an aircraft engine mechanic from 1968 to 2001. She was featured in the Kelly Observer, published August 8, 1974, and described her work as a challenge going from one B-52 to another to assist in performing vital repair work to meet production schedules. She was a devoted mother and grandmother who spent her entire life caring for her family. Weya, as she was often called by loved ones, was a happy soul who loved to be active and busy. Any chance she could, she would head out to her favorite casinos or play her favorite lottery games. She was a happy and lucky bingo player. She was an excellent cook who made the best menudo in town. She was also known for making the spiciest habanero hot sauce that would make anybody cry, just ask the Honorable Judge Al Alonso. She was preceded in death by her father, daughter, Alice Rodriguez, husbands, Leobardo Rodriguez Sr. and Rudy Moran. She is survived by her mother, sister, Estella V. Chapa, daughters and sons-in-law, Lillian and Dr. Pablo Guajardo, Mary L. and Frank Garza, JoAnn and Gilberto Castellanos, sons and daughters-in-law, Alex and Oralia Rodriguez, Leo and Margie Rodriguez, Edward and Rose Rodriguez and daughter-in-law and husband, Yolanda Rodriguez-Gutierrez and Fred Gutierrez.
