“ I was looking forward to coming to Texas and meeting you soon. Now all I have are my mom's pictures and memories to know you by. I liked talking to you on the phone and always thought it was funny that you called my mom Tweetie. I know you are in heaven

“ I always enjoyed talking to Nanny on the phone. The first time she called and asked for Tweetie I didn't know who she was talking about until my mom got home from work that evening. She sounded like a nice person and I think we would have gotten along
