

Mary V. Orta

March 25, 1935 - May 21, 2024

Mary V. Orta was born in San Antonio, Texas, on March 25, 1935, to Petra and Encarnación Tapia Villaseñor. She passed away on May 21, 2024, at the age of 89. She is preceded in passing by her parents, her husband of 35 years, Daniel Orta, as well as her sisters, Maria Hernandez, and Jaine Gallegos. Mary is survived by her daughter, Mary Olga (Victor Cabrera) Segura; her sons, Daniel (Diana) Orta Jr., and Jerry Joseph (Bea) Orta; her sister, Trinidad Guerrero; her brother, Roy (Maryann) Villaseñor; her grandkids, Roland Michael Segura, Mark Segura, Cristobal Orta, Daniel M. Orta III, Eric Orta, Jerry Joseph Orta Jr., Joy Orta, and Derick Orta; and her great grandkids, Jerod Segura, Julian Orta, and Andrea Orta; and her dog Tucker, that saved her on 3 separate occasions.

Growing up Mary was considered a tomboy. She would go down to the creek by her childhood home and grab the shrimp sitting there at the bottom to bring it back and scare her mom. She would nap out on the porch with her father while all her sisters stayed inside. She was good with slingshots too. The stories go on for the antics Mary would get into. By the time she turned 14 she had found herself happily married to Daniel Orta. She began her family at the age of 16. Mary finished her G.E.D. later in life but then went on to college to become a nurses' aid at Baptist Hospital. She also owned her own beauty salon. When she wasn't working hard, she was enjoying herself being outside. Mary loved to garden, go on fishing trips with her husband, play baseball, and bowl.

Mary was a very loving and caring woman. She helped take care of her grandsons and spoiled all her grandkids. She adored her grandchildren tremendously and was always happy to see them, especially during Christmas. Mary was the one that came up with the monthly family luncheons to make sure she got to keep in touch with all her loved ones. At these luncheons they would celebrate the birthdays for the month and get the chance to catch up. Mary was truly loved by all. She will be dearly missed.
