Mary Beth Ross

August 14, 1926 – June 28, 2017

Mary Beth Ross was born August 14, 1926 in San Antonio, Texas. She resided her entire life in San Antonio. She is preceded in death by her husband Paul Ross who died March 28th, 2006. She was the youngest of 13 children and all of her siblings are deceased. She had one daughter, Debra Northam and husband Olen Northam and two grandchildren, Lisa Carpenter and husband Joseph Carpenter and Theodore Parrot and wife Vanessa. She had one adopted granddaughter, Maria Valdez. She had seven great grandchildren: Joseph "Trey" Richard, Travis, Alaina, Tristan, Tiffany, Trey and Ty. Her great grandchildren were her pride and joy. She also loved Cynthia Bernal and Cass Bernal and family who were her loving caregivers the last days of her life. She loved a job she had at Frost Brothers Department Store and this is where she developed her fine sense of fashion. She loved dancing and gardening; but most of all she loved her family. She was her happiest when all of her family were together. She will be remembered and missed. Visitation will begin on Sunday, July 2, 2017 at 12:00 p.m. with a service to begin at 1:00 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. On Monday, July 3, 2017 she will be laid to rest at the Clyde Cemetery in Clyde, TX. For personal acknowledgement, you may sign the online guestbook at www.missionparks.com in the obituary section.
