“ I feel grateful to have gotten the opportunity to get to know GrandMary over the past year. Her strong will and determination are an inspiration!

“ My mom was an amazing person! She was interested in everyone she met and wanted to know about their family, their hopes and dreams. Also, she was interested in the broader world around. She was a voter all her life and one of her last pleasures was to cast her vote in the general presidential election--Democrat, of course. She was mentally alert until the very end. She had taken very good care of herself and been compliant with all medical advice. In her last few days she visited with several people whom she loved and cared for deeply. In particular, I would like to thank my brother, Rudolph, and his wife, Kim, and all of Kim's family for their support. Kim's family visited her daily, took care of her and loved her completely. Mom loved all her family and had a deep and abiding faith in God. I am very grateful for my mom's long life and her strong network of family and friends.
