

Mary Ann Yaws Scott

April 8, 1939 - November 21, 2012

Mary Ann Yaws Scott, born April 8, 1939 in San Antonio Texas, reached the end of her wonderful spirit-filled journey and went home to be with her Lord and savior November 21, 2012. She was surrounded by her friends, family and the love of her life for almost 52 years of marriage. Mary Ann had many hobbies during the course of her rich life. She was an angelic singer and loved to praise God with her vocal talents. Mary Ann was also an accomplished artist whose favorite medium was acrylic tole painting and Texas bluebonnets, one of her favorite topics. She embraced technology and became a profecient and often consultedamateur geneologist. Later in her life, Mary Ann used her love of computers and decreasing mobility to create new forms of ministry that reached countless lives across the country. She was a true prayer warrior and never stopped praying for God's will to be done in every life she touched.

Mary Ann devoted her life to her family, her churches, ministering to others, especially children and serving her adoring husband as a Godly wife. She was an inspiration to all she met and the first person others sought for prayer and comfort. Mary Ann is survived by her husband Charles Wayne Scott, sons Rhett and Wade, their wives Tracy and Trish; four grandsons Zachary, Colin, Michael and Connor, sister Shirley Yaws Brown and brother Howard Yaws Services
