“ I now know the meaning of Uncontional Love....Thank You Tia. Never heard a curse word cross-word from you, except that one time...lol. We hold you in Our Hearts and Minds, until We see You and Uncle Robert again. I will forever be grateful and appreciative of Your hospitality, Our conversations, the Sunday Editions of the San Antonio Light when I was deployed, the cookies and it is always the little things that you do that shine the brightest.

“ Her daughter Laura is my neighbor. When Robert and Mary would come and sit out side, we would enjoy good conversations
They were a precious couple .
They are together again in the very presence of God .
Forever miss by family and friends

Thank you for blessing my life with yours Robert and Mary.
