

Mary W. St. Amant

January 3, 1936 - December 29, 2005

Mary Margaret Waldrop St. Amant died December 29, 2005. She was born January 3, 1936 at Meridian, Mississippi as the only daughter and first child of James Alton Waldrop and Willielu Franklin Waldrop. She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, Gene and Bruce Waldrop, one son, Paul Waldrop St. Amant and one niece, Karon Waldrop Robinson. Mary is survived by her husband for 47 years, Herbert E. St. Amant; daughter and son-in-law; Lou Anne St. Amant Cozby and Claude L. Cozby III, son and daughter-in-law: Joel T. St. Amant and Jewdy Crain St. Amant, Grandchildren: Rebecca E. Cozby, Claude L. Cozby IV, and Evan S. St. Amant, brother and sister-in-law James David Waldrop and Lu Anne Waldrop, one Niece: Jennifer Waldrop Sholar, one grand nephew: Jeffrey Robinson and other relatives. Mary attended elementary and junior high in Meridian, Mississippi and high school in Newton, Mississippi and earned a BS Degree from Mississippi Southern College, now the University of Southern Mississippi at Hattiesburg, Mississippi. Mary had been active in her church and her children's school and scout activities. She loved her flowers, and left plenty of flower plants for her family to care for. Mary was a loving and caring lady especially for her mother's last thirteen years. Mary will be remembered by her ability to make fun of herself and share her life with her family and her friends.

“ We have been so blessed to have known Mary. She always had time for everyone and truly cared about each one of us. She had such a wonderful laugh that we will miss. She is in a better place now with no pain but we will all certainly miss her.

In Him,
