

Mary E. Stovall

December 9, 1920 - November 17, 2010

Stovall

Mary E. Stovall born on December 9, 1920 went to be with the Lord on November 17, 2010 at the age of 89. She is preceded in death by her parents and by 2 sisters and 1 brother. She is survived by her daughters Madeline Ferry and husband George and Elaine Pringle; son Tommy Stovall and wife Diane; sister Dorothy Killough; 6 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren. Mary taught school for 40 years mostly at South San School District. She has many students that remember and love her till this day. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Tribute Wall

LT

“ Mrs. Stovall was my third grade teacher at Price Elem. in 1958, and I have been trying to contact her to let her know how profoundly and postively she influenced me. I wrote and called the San Antonio Express to ask them to do a story on this wonderful te

-----
Linda True - February 22, 2012 at 12:00 AM

PC

“ So sad to hear of Mrs. Stovall's passing. She was a beloved teacher while I was at Price Elementary. My mother Irene Ogle taught with her and Elaine and I were in school together. We have been blessed with some great role models haven't we. May God gr

-----
Patricia Ogle Corn - November 24, 2010 at 12:00 AM

BJ

“ Our Prayers are with you.

-----
Bill, John, Susan, and Jim - November 21, 2010 at 12:00 AM

AG

“ My favorite teacher of all time, Price Elementary 3rd grade, Mrs Stovall, instilled in me a love of reading that lasts to this very day. Later on at Palo Alto Elementary I had the rare honor of teaching with her as she substituted there on occasion which

-----
Andrew J. Gamez - November 20, 2010 at 12:00 AM

SS

“ I had the honor of knowing Mrs. Stovall for several years. She substituted for me at Hutchins Elementary many times. I always requested her and knew my students were in good hands. One of my fondest memories is seeing her walking along Zarzamora Stre

---

Susie Smith - November 19, 2010 at 12:00 AM