

Mary Jo Thome

April 17, 1920 - November 25, 2006

Mary Jo Bixler Thome died on November 25, 2006 at the age of 86. She was born in Indianapolis, IN April 17, 1920 and graduated from St. John's Academy. She died after sustaining a fall during her morning 3-mile walk. Graveside services will be held Thursday, November 30, 2006, at 10:30 a.m. at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery. Memorial remembrances may be made to a charity of your choice. Mary Jo is survived by her husband of 61 years, Joe, and her son , Joseph Jr. and his wife Rita; daughters, Toni Moore and husband Steve, and Anne Farris and husband Robert; grandchildren Johanna Egert, Justin and Lucas Thome, and Kevin and Keith Jahn; brothers Jerome Bixler and D. Edward Bixler; and sister Regina Ziesler. She also is survived by many nieces and nephews. Mary Jo enjoyed and supported Joe's 33-year Air Force career and was adive in the Air Force community. She loved gardening, birding, reading, and spending time with family. She will be forever missed.

Tribute Wall

SR

“ Remember 28 years ago as if it were yesterday. We had just moved in to the house directly across from her and Joe. She appeared at our front porch smiling and welcoming us while carrying a beautiful large ivy hanging basket as a home warming gift to thos

Stamata & Ron - December 02, 2006 at 12:00 AM