

Mary C. Trimble

August 4, 1921 - April 13, 2010

Mary C. Trimble, known to those who loved her as Cathryn, "Little Sister", Kay, Mom, Aunt Kay and Grankin passed from this life on Tuesday, April 13, 2010. Born in 1921, her mother, Mary Mullis and brother, Hunter, weathered the fear and uncertainty of the Great Depression. She would wait in heartbreak after receiving the dreaded, "We regret to inform you" telegram. Her WWII MIA pilot and life's love returned; she and William "Billy" Trimble and continued their journey through six decades of marriage. Kay and her hero were glowing examples of "The Greatest Generation". She single handedly turned back several recessions with her plastic wand, loved playing golf from the rough and painting. She lived an enchanted life, and yet, never had a recorded encounter with a "dust bunny". Kind to all dogs and tolerant of small children she will be missed by all who knew and loved her. The most gorgeous Mom at any teacher conference, principal's office, hospital emergency room, basketball game, military ball or nursing home, her four boys never tired of saying, "You're right, she is beautiful.", "No, she's not a movie star" and proudly stating "That's MY Mom". Finally, Mom, we all promise to keep our feet off the coffee table and we'll see you and Dad later. She is survived by her sons Hunter & wife Joan, Jeffrey & wife Lynn, Brian & wife Tina, her grandchildren Elizabeth, Daryl, Jordan, Taylor, Austen, Aron, and Collin. She was preceded in death by husband Lt. Col. William W. Trimble and a son Kevin D. Trimble. Visitation will be from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Thursday, April 15, 2010 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. A 12:00 p.m., Chapel

Service will be celebrated on Friday, April 16, 2010 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. Interment to follow in Mission Burial Park North. In lieu of flowers a gift to the American Lung Association may be donated.
