“ I loved visiting her at work: She was always so happy to see me and she loved to talk. We would share our health issues since we both had knee issues. Even when she was going through chemo the last time I visited her she was cheerful even though she was so tired. She will truly be missed, but I know she is in a better place and doesn't have to suffer any more.

“ Mary I had the pleasure of meeting & getting to know you when I was 16 when I worked with Elisa @ Austin Hardwoods!! You always had a smile on your face (that would light up the room) & a hug to give! I will forever cherish the memories I have, like when Elisa & I would stop & get tacos from Taco Kitchen (where you worked) before we went to work! You would always tell us to behave ourselves. I love how over the years we all became family! You, Mommo & Elisa meant the world to me! May you RIP. You will be truly missed & forever be loved!! We love you Elisa and pray that God holds you closely & that you find peace in him.

“ Her voice felt like a hug, is the best description of what I will miss from Ms. Mary. She ordered her steak a very specific way at our restaurant & I always wanted to make sure we exceeded her expectations because people with that much generosity, compassion, wisdom in their heart deserved the best! The BEST of the best! People like Ms. Mary are the people who love their fellow stranger like a long time friend of 10 plus years. When she would come in with Elisa, it was like catching up with old cousins, acting excited & getty & genuinely enjoying each others company. We shared many stories together of the fun things in life! That was US and couple of gals chatting it up in the hot spot of San Antonio! Nothing but smiles when I think of Ms. Mary & how she ALWAYS looked fabulous such a fashionista! She also showed Elisa that when you look stylish you feel on top of the world! Both had the cutest accessories with complimenting smiles to match:) I can go on and on but God knows how I feel about her and now you all do too ! Rest in peace with Lord and may God forever keep and guide you always. Last but not least Mary know that Elisa has us here and you to watch us all! We love you
