

Mary Wynn

August 1, 1928 - August 11, 2021

Mary Wynn, 93, passed away on August 11, 2021, in Austin. She was born August 1, 1928, in Monterrey, California. Mary graduated from Edgewood High School and Draughn's Business School. After receiving her real estate license in 1963, she sold land and homes in Helotes Park Estates for over 20 years. After leaving real estate, she went on to help open Helotes State Bank. Mary loved her family, planning family gatherings, watching wildlife at the ranch in Vanderpool and Dallas Cowboy football. She was known for remembering every special occasion with cards and gifts.

She was preceded in death by husband Henry Wynn, son Charles Wynn, daughter-in-law Carol Wynn, and her 10 brothers and sisters. She is survived by daughter, Robin Mitchell and husband Tom, son James Wynn and wife Betsy, seven grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.
