

Marylin Flora Ormsby

November 27, 1931 - August 8, 2024

Marylin Flora Ormsby departed this world on August 8, 2024, doing what she loved most, caring for her rose and flower garden. She was born in Seguin, Texas on November 27, 1931, and grew up in San Antonio. She was married for 65 years to her loving husband, Arthur Cecil Ormsby. They were both dedicated, longtime members of Christ Lutheran Church in Lubbock, Texas, contributing to its charity programs and leading many of the church's activities. Marylin was especially devoted to volunteering with their church's ministry production center of Lutheran Braille Workers. Arthur and Marylin's favorite pastime was attending Texas Tech University sporting games with their season tickets. Marylin was always considered sweet and nice due to her friendly and helpful nature to all. She is survived by her younger sister, Jeanette Burg of La Vernia; her son, Steve Arthur Ormsby of Tomball, her daughter and son-in-law Cheryl Lynn and James "Jim" Wilmer Ramsey of Austin; her two grandchildren, Eric James Ramsey of Austin and Heather Suzanne Byrd and husband Adam Christopher Byrd of Round Rock; and three great-grandchildren, A. Kenneth Byrd, Alexander James Byrd, and Augustus Christopher Byrd, also of Round Rock. Marylin had the good fortune of developing a close relationship with her great-grandchildren after moving in with her daughter and son-in-law two years ago. Donations in memory of Marylin may be made to her favorite charity, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.
