

Matthew S. Champion

September 21, 1983 - February 14, 2021

MATTHEW S. CHAMPION
(1983 - 2021)

Matthew was born September 21, 1983 in Ocala, Florida to Joseph and Trish Champion. He grew up in Florida, riding motorcycles and boogie boarding in the ocean surf. Spent much time with his dad in the axle business travelling the roads of Florida and Georgia. He loved fast cars and enjoyed drag racing his cars at the San Antonio Speedway.

An avid gun enthusiast and competition shooter, he even reloaded his own ammunition. Matt also was a power lifter, working out several days a week. He could dead lift 505 lbs. and do 565 lbs. of High Pulls Top Set.

Matt overcame many obstacles in life but always fought valiantly. He was a loyal friend and his friendships were for life. Matt loved his family, especially his kids and dad, who he had a very special relationship with. Joe and Matt were always there for each other.

Due to COVID, Matt left this world too soon on February 14, 2021. He will be forever loved and never forgotten by his wife, Maegan, children; Nathan and Kallie, and his mother, Trish.

As per his wishes, there will be no funeral.

Tribute Wall

“ 3 files added to the album Memories Album ”

---

Mission Park Funeral Chapels & Cemetery - February 26, 2021 at 03:12 PM