

Matthew "Scotty" Scott Galbraith

July 30, 1965 - March 11, 2019

Matthew Scott Galbraith of San Antonio, Texas, died on March 11, 2019, at the age of 53 in Rockport, TX.

He was born on July 30, 1965, in San Antonio, Texas. He was the oldest son of Gary and Patricia Galbraith from San Antonio, Texas.

Scotty graduated from John Marshall High School in San Antonio, TX. He was a service writer by trade and a garage warrior by night.

He despised lazy people, having to do things twice because you didn't do it right the first time, people who didn't know how to have a good time, brussels sprouts, loud-mouth know-it-alls who thought they knew more than he, bad Mexican food, and shoes.

Scotty had many loves, too. He loved his wife, Barbara Jean "Jeannie" Galbraith, of San Antonio.

He also dearly loved his son Garrett and grandchildren, Abigail and Alyssa.

Scotty was extremely close to his parents Pat and Gary, younger brother Chris and his little sister Stacey whom he called "Sissy."

He took extreme pride in his two adorable grandchildren Abigail (2) and

Alyssa

(10 months), who affectionately called him Poppi.

He also loved to BBQ, beer, Whataburger, plain M&M's, Reese's Peanut Butter Cups, the Dallas Cowboys and the Spurs, the History Channel, his truck, good Mexican food, playing in his garage, Rockport, any beach, his friends, hanging out at his parents house, and his dogs.

Scotty took fashion advice from no one. With his trademark shorts, tank tops or button up short sleeve shirt and bare feet, his comfort far outweighed any interest in the latest fashion trends.

In the last couple of years, Scotty's illness was getting the best of him. His devout feistiness and stubbornness had served him well throughout his life. And even in his final months, he was a model of strong will and sheer determination right up until the end of his journey here on earth. He will be greatly missed and fondly remembered by his family, friends, and neighbors.

He is survived by his wife Barbara Jean Galbraith of San Antonio, his son Matthew

Garrett Galbraith of Pensacola, FL, his father Gary Galbraith of San Antonio, mother

Patricia Galbraith, his his two granddaughters Abigail and Alyssa of Pensacola, FI, his brother Christopher Brian Galbraith of San Antonio, TX and his sister Stacey Annette Galbraith of San Antonio, TX.

“ No words can express the great loss upon hearing about the passing of Scotty! As I sit here in disbelief I can only remember all the great times we had at Perrin Motor Co. Even tho we didn't keep in touch the Galbraith family holds a dear part of mine and my husband hearts! They were all so caring and giving. Our heartfelt condolences to Jeannie, Garrett, Gary, Pat, Chris and Stacey at this most difficult time. Y'all are in our prayers and thoughts and forever in our hearts! All our Love Paul & Karen Smith. “REST IN PEACE SCOTTY” NEVER WILL BE FORGOTTEN!
