I love you so much Matt, thank you taking care of and protected my baby girl. We will never forget you Zowie is the spitting image of you. She has your smile, your laugh, your silliness. I will do everything in my power to watch over our babies and keep them same. I wish I could take away the pain but I can't all I can do is love them unconditional. Thank you for being an amazing husband and Daddy. Rest in peace my Son n law. You will never be forgotten.

My lil bro words can never express what u meant to me and how much u meant to me, we were always the sarcastic ones of the family and even now I can hear that dry humor we all love u for rest easy baby bro and kno that big brother gots it from here, rest easy and u better show me all the good fishing spots in heaven when I do get there, till then watch over me and guide me and help me become a great man like u... I love u and won't let u down, I have some big shoes to fill and another of work to do but u will see how I help humanity like I said I would.... I only hope to be a great dad someday like u and Tata.. I love u lil bro thanks for everything u taught me... Rest now I got this...

My fondness memories of Matt. Met Matt for the first time and quickly knew our new neighbors were going to OK with his infectious smile and friendliness. We will miss the smell of his bbq and all the food he prepared he was so sweet to always send some over to taste Blessed to have had to know him even for the few years he lived her in Kingsville. Always in prayer to all the family. Alvar and Elvia Hancock
