“ First of all my deepest condolences to all of The Sotelo family, as well as my Cousins, Tina, Mary, Margaret, Lisa and Joe. I just want to share a special moment I had with Max. When we last spoke, he showed us his pride and joy, his little farm. He was so happy for what he had. I think deep in his heart, he always wanted a piece of land where he can have farm animals and with his will and determination, he accomplished that. He was so proud of his kids and grandkids. He Loved you all unconditionally. He cried when he spoke of some of the challenges you all would be facing once he left this earth. We assured him that things would work out, just put it in the hands of the Lord. He Loved his Daughter in Law because he said that she would take good care of him in his times of need. I enjoyed texting him little quotes to try and cheer him up. I sent him the following quote and he called me and said, you just made me cry....he then said, since when did you become so smart.....omg, we laughed about that. Here is the quote I texted him. But, before I end this, let me just say, I love you cuz and you will never be forgotten, go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

Say hello to all of our departed family.

Until we meet again, God bless you!
