

Maxine Meerscheidt Lee

June 16, 1921 - October 13, 2006

Maxine Meerscheidt Lee, beloved wife, mother, and grandmother went to be with the Lord on Oct. 13, 2006 at the age of 85. She was born in Wharton, Texas. She was preceded in death by her husband, Marvin Shaw Lee, brother Clinton Meerscheidt, and granddaughter Tacey Maulden. Her lifelong profession as a bookkeeper included various businesses and non-profit organizations including Judson Candy Factory, Brown Motor Freight, Agudas Achim Congregation, and Dr.'s Dossman, and Wissinger. Upon retiring, Maxine pursued a lifelong interest in dancing. This endeavor blossomed into ballroom competitions locally as well as statewide and brought her many accolades. Aside from her talent on the dance floor, Maxine was known for her kind and patient ways. She was a devout Christian and believed in helping others within her community. This belief led to her many years of volunteer service as a Bluebird at the Methodist Hospital. She is survived by daughter Gail Gifford and husband David, son Jay Lee and wife Debbie, granddaughters Brandy Caywood, and Natasha and Kristi Lee, and sister-in-law Helen Meerscheidt. A special thanks to all of the loving staff at Kingsley Place, Chandler House, and Bethany Hospice. All of you were truly Maxine's angels.

Tribute Wall

“ Gail and family
Peace be with you ”

Horace M TAYLOR - October 20, 2006 at 12:00 AM