

Maxine Tripp

October 15, 1921 - June 16, 2013

On October 15, 1921 in Llano Texas, Willet and Issie Lee Davis Smith celebrated the birth of another daughter – Issie Maxine Smith. Ninety-one years later, June 16, 2013 God saw that Maxine had accomplished her earthly tasks and brought her home.

Maxine obtained a Masters Degree in Social Services and spent 35 years in the Social Services and In-Home Care industry. She retired in 1984 and focused on another passion – Ranching. For 29 years, she and her husband of 51 years; Raymond McDaniel Tripp partnered to manage the 4-T Ranch – Live Stock, Bee Keeping, Orchard and Hay production. Their two sons – Richard McDaniel Tripp and Christopher Raymond Tripp carry on her passion and love of Texas and Ranching.

Maxine is survived by her husband Raymond M. Tripp and sons Richard M. Tripp and Christopher R. Tripp. Sisters – Bernese Tripp, Lorraine Schorsch and Rosealie Schmitz. Brothers - Louis Smith and Nathan Smith.

A celebration of her life will be held at Palm Heights Mortuary 3711 S. Zarzamora on Thursday, June 20th, at 10am. Private burial to follow.
