“ *From nephew Tommy Adams:
I have a fuzzy memory of going to family gatherings at Aunt Maybelle's house. I remember Uncle Oliver and my dad sharing a 6 pack. No wait! They would never drink that much, and they didn't share a fondness for the same label. Was there a keg? Aunt Maybelle was a great host. Laughter filled the kitchen and back yard. I remember a muscle car with the front seat ripped out and installed further back to accommodate a long-legged driver. I remember a white horse who wanted to join in on the fun. Great fun with the cousins. Aunt Maybelle and Uncle Oliver will live on in all our memories and in the values they instilled in all their children. I have them on family hero pedestals in my memory forever. JOY!*

“ *Maybelline Dillard was a member of the auxiliary of Nuestra Casa boys home, A Presbyterian boys home. We remember her as a kind and considerate volunteer. During the auxiliary boys home sales we had a good time as well working together for a charitable purpose. I'm sure she will be missed by myself her family and all that knew her.
