“ We knew Maynard through Oak Hills Presbyterian Church. He and Keith Parkin made shelves for the home we bought in 1978. He was such a dependable, kind and thoughtful man.

“ Dear Mary and Family:

Ann and I were saddened to hear of Maynards passing. During the short time I knew him I found that he was genuine person who served his country with HONOR. His love for animals--of all kinds--was remarkable. I had to fly my flag
