“ My sincerest condolences to Melissa’s extraordinary parents, Herbert and Sylvia Perez, and to the children and grandchildren, in their loss.

I knew Melissa from the time she was a toddler and a delightful whirling dervish, running the aisles at East Central Assembly of God Church, where her parents served as pastors of English and Spanish chapels.

Melissa grew into an energetic and industrious young woman who passionately managed life’s challenges with an indomitable spirit.

Even though Melissa experienced deeply unsettling seasons in her life, she maintained a sense of ensured urgency and with cool aplomb. She handled life with an adventurous spirit and can-do nature, charging into days with boldness!

I think many of us will remember her zest for life and resourceful ability to problem-solve. She possessed an exuberant personality combined with intensity and resoluteness!

I fervently pray for her children and grandchildren, that God would wrap His loving, merciful arms around them and be their close guide and comfort in life. I pray God’s mighty hand of protection and wisdom over their lives as they navigate those treacherous paths daily. I pray the vibrancy and intelligence exhibited by Melissa will be etched into their hearts and minds. I beseech our Lord God to abundantly provide for Melissa’s family, and to supernaturally bless dearest Sylvia and Herbert.

Finally, I fervently ask God Almighty to vastly multiply Melissa’s love for them, which she gave the best way she was able, and with the Lord’s abounding grace. In the Name of Jesus, Selah and Amen ❤️
