“ Granny, for the first time, in all our lives as a family, we have to go one without you physically with us. You made such an impression on us, your influence, I'm sure, well last generations long after we are all with you again as we pass down the wealth that was your life, and our life. I remember Lee and I looking through the hair on the back of your head, very intently, and you asking us what we were doing. We were looking for the eye you said you had in the back of your head because you seemed to always know what we were up to. We have been so blessed to have you in our lives all these years. I love you, Granny.
