

Melville Edward Mountjoy

November 24, 1925 - March 11, 2017

Melville E. Mountjoy was born to Stella and Cory Mountjoy on November 24, 1925 and passed away March 11, 2017.

Mel grew up in Dignowity Hill, attending Central Catholic and Brackenridge high schools. He joined the Navy and then worked for his father at two of his auto parts businesses. He later worked for Imperial Eastman Corp. as a factory representative over Oklahoma, Missouri, Arkansas, and Louisiana, living in Fort Smith, AR, for a number of years. Missing San Antonio, he and wife Marjorie moved back home.

Mel was a Mason. He also had served as past president of San Antonio Automotive Association, a past member of National Speakers Association, and a member of Toastmasters Club for several decades. He was an avid fan of car racing.

Mel leaves behind his beloved wife of 69 years, three children - Barbara Hancock, Donna (Mrs. Braxton Roberts) and Cory Mountjoy, seven grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and two great-great grandchildren. The family thanks Dr. Kristi Clark of Health Texas and the Heart to Heart Hospice.

The service will be held at 11 a.m. Sunday, March 19 at Mission Burial Park South, 1700 S.E. Military Drive.
