“ Grandpa,
I'm so sad as I'm just finding out you passed. 8 years you have been gone. I will always remember the trips mom and I made to San Antonio to see you on the way to the deer lease. Boy how I wish I could rewind time right now. Deeply saddened to

“ Uncle John
In the many years I have known you you treated me like your son. I remember the time hunting with my father Freddie A. and Justin, we were sitting around the campfire eating a bowl of beans and the story of how you lost your fingers was the
