

Melvin Edward Stark

December 7, 1932 - August 25, 2007

Melvin Edward Stark born December 7, 1932 went to be with our Lord on August 25, 2007 at the age of 74. Born and raised in San Antonio, Melvin retired after 25 years from San Antonio Parks & Recreation. A lifetime outdoorsman who on one of his last hunting expeditions, even though plagued with Parkinson's Disease, accomplished a remarkable feat that hunters only dream of by taking down two deer with only one shot. He is survived by his companion Beverly Anderson; daughters Cindy Mitchell and husband Kyle, Norma Weatherby and husband Craig, Pam Sinclair and husband Thomas, Sharlotte Anderson; son Byron Stark and wife Toni; sisters Evelyn Brewer Leslie, Genevieve Couch Donald, Thelma Jennings; 11 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

CM

“ The Madison Family would like for the Family to know that we love Melvin Stark and he was a very wonderful person and was happy to work with and to known. We will miss him. Our prayer are with you and the family. God Bless The Family.
With Love Always
C

---

Connell C. Madison - August 28, 2007 at 12:00 AM

AQ

I'm trying to get a hold of the family Beverly and Charlotte .if anyone knows how I can reach them I would appreciate it ..I'm a old friend looking for them .since Melvin pass they moved from there home and I been wondering about them .

---

Adrian quiled - November 11, 2016 at 10:46 PM

NW

“ My sincere condolences to the entire Stark family. Coach Stark was a great influence and friend to soo many of us, during my youth, at S.E. Lions. There are many fond memories of filling and overfilling!his Blue Ford Torino so we could play in a variety o

---

neal williamson - August 27, 2007 at 12:00 AM