“ We spoke 4 nights before.
We both fell asleep almost the same time
Little did we know that night would be the last time
As God call you home
In life we dearly loved each other
In death i do the same

It broke my heart to lose you
You left us peaceful memories
Your love is still my guide
And though we cannot see nor hear you
We know that God would call us one by one

The chain will link again.

From you loving sister Ivy

We had just discovered each other again, my neighbor and friend. We will miss you. You left and impact on everyone you met. You had a heart for people. Sometimes people come in your life for a moment, a day or a lifetime. The greatest legacy anyone could leave behind is the positive impact on the lives of people. You did that my friend. Love you, you will always be in our hearts and thoughts.

“ My memories of Grandma Merril will never fade. Although separated by an ocean, our spirits were always close and I treasured every moment I shared a conversation with her. Her sweet voice, that melted my heart and laughter that warmed me to my core will continue to bring comfort and joy at any moment in remembrance of her beautiful soul. May you be at rest now Grandma and forever smiling, I will always love you and miss you with all my heart. Your loving Grand daughter, Nadia.
