

Michael Ayler

April 18, 2003 - January 7, 2026

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of our beloved cowboy, Michael Ayler. Michael was born on April 18th 2003 and gave us 22 years of pure love, genuine kindness, and rooms full of laughter until God called him home on January 7th 2026.

Michael was the beloved son of Nina and Rick, and a treasured grandson to his papa Michael and Maura. He was a cherished brother to Jerzy, Francesca, Larissa, Dalis, Tessa, and Landon, and a proud uncle to his two nephews and niece, Avery, Kinsley, and Giovanni. His family was the center of his world, and his love for them was constant, fierce, and unwavering.

To those who knew him, Michael was much more than a son, brother, or uncle—he was a protector, a confidant, and a bright light. As the big brother, he embraced his role with devotion, watching over his siblings with loyalty, strength, and a deep sense of responsibility. As an uncle, he poured his heart into loving his nephews and niece, filling their lives with affection, laughter, and playful energy.

A charming and fearless soul, Michael lived boldly and loved deeply. He had a way of lighting up a room with his presence—whether through his humor, his confidence, or his unmistakable spirit. He faced life head-on, unafraid to be himself, and left a lasting impression on everyone who had the privilege of knowing him.

Above all, Michael was a devoted son, brother, uncle, and friend. His loyalty, strength, and heart will forever be cherished by his family and friends. He leaves behind memories filled with laughter, adventure, and unconditional love that will continue to live on in those who knew him best.

He was a kind, loving, outspoken free spirit. He had a rare gift for making people feel seen and valued, whether they were lifelong friends or someone he had just met. He was always willing to help, never hesitating to give his time, energy, or heart to those around him. Known for his charm and confidence, Michael carried himself with a magnetic presence and a smile that was impossible to forget.

Michael was deeply kind and generous with his love. He was loyal, protective, and especially devoted to his sisters, whom he loved with his whole heart. He lived fearlessly, embracing life with confidence and courage, never shying away from new experiences or adventures. His little brother was his best friend, and Michael took great pride in being someone Landon could look up to—always guiding, supporting, and cheering him on.

Those who speak of Michael often describe him as confident, wild, and full of life—cocky in the best way. He loved fiercely, lived boldly, and gave his whole heart to his friends and family. Though his time here was far too short, Michael left an indelible mark on everyone who knew him. His spirit will live on through the stories shared, the laughter remembered, and the love that will forever surround his name.
