I retired from SASSLC after 25 years, and Michael introduced himself from the very first chapel service at the Pavilion. He loved the altar flowers! And he was fast! I send my prayers and condolences to his loving family, some whom I met during one of Michael's hospitalizations a few years ago. See you in Eternity, Michael!

“ I have known Michael for 39 years since working at SASSLC..... he was always so happy and with his tablet and pencil as a young man and his interest change as he grew into adulthood. He will truly be missed. Our heartfelt condolences to Mr. & Mrs. Lopez and his brother Joe, Velma and Les Lizcano and family.
