“ I've know Mike since we were attending Horace Mann junior high school. I just ran into him and Juana having breakfast while I was with my parents. Mike, you gentle giant, and always approachable. My thoughts and prayers are with Juana and their family. Until we meet again Big Mike! Rest in Peace Brother, Amén 🙏

To Juana & family and the rest of the De La Garza family, my name is Alice Hernandez mother of Louie Hernandez. I met Mike when he was a young boy, brother of Jaime who was married to my son Louie for about 4 years. We loved Jaime dearly and think about her often. Mike also went to School at Jeff with my son Bill & daughter Liz Hernandez. Condolences for your loss. Mike was a good person. Love to the family, Lyndsey & Ram. Blessings & Prayers.

Sandra and I would like to send our condolences - Mike was always the guy there no matter what - from being a compassionate friend to always backing you up. I remember many a nights working on my truck - towing it back when it would break down, to just hanging out sharing stories. I know he cherished his time with his family and friends. Mike till we meet again. Love you always - thanks for being you - sincerely, Alex and Sandra Archey
