“ Michael was married to my sister for 45 years. They loved each very much. After he retired, he learned to cook some really good food. My sister, Laura and I visited one time and Michael made some Italian food that was just delicious! The Goneau family will miss him.

“ Mike was my big brother and my role model both as a child and an adult for calmness and peacefulness. As the oldest of the four brothers, he was the leader. Growing up, we spent much time swimming, biking, and playing board games together, but Mike set the pace. The attached photo shows the two of us in the background watching carefully while everyone else parties. Mike showed great love for his brothers when he housed one of us for a while during recovery from an unfortunate incident. Mike was there when needed, lovingly sacrificed for others, and set the standard for quiet, yet firm, leadership. I will miss my big brother.
