“ *Mike , where do I start man. Here I sit in a lobby in New Orleans a day after your burial thinking about my brother. Thinking about all the laughing, arguing, fighting and hell raising we did when we were coming up in life . No matter what stages of our lives we we're we're in we always picked off where we left off laughing and bullshitting . Thank you for letting me be a part of your life , thank you for being my best man at my wedding and I yours , thank you for always being there when I needed my brother. You will be missed but not forgotten . We rode hard , we rode fast , we WILL ride again!!

“ Mikey,

You welcomed me into your family when I first met your sister and when I look back at those times, they are good memories. You took me on my first South Texas hunting trip with all of the cousins and even enjoyed a laugh when I saw the "grey turkeys" and took a shot at the "mythical hog" in the far off darkness. I know deep down your heart was hurting and you had enormous physical pain from all of life's lessons. Today we sit here as a family sad, hurting and wondering what could have been. You had so many friends and family that loved you and wanted and prayed for true healing and change in your life. I am sorry that day on earth did not come. Our children will always have the memory of Uncle Mike and I know now that the physical and emotional pain you have endured for so long is now over. I thank God for the true Christian faith of Mike, Linda, and especially Debbie. Their hearts are truly broken today, but in faith they have hope that healing will come.

We miss you and love you - Chet

“ My prayers to the family.

FATHER, YOU HOLD TIME WITHIN YOUR HANDS, AND SEE IT ALL FROM BEGINNING TO END. PLEASE KEEP AND CARRY THESE PRECIOUS PEOPLE IN THEIR SADNESS AND LOSS. COVER THEM WITH YOUR GREAT WINGS OF LOVE, GIVE THEIR WEARY HEARTS REST AND THEIR MINDS SOUND SLEEP. LORD LIFT THEIR EYES SO THAT THEY MAY CATCH A GLIMPSE OF ETERNITY, AND BE COMFORTED BY THE PROMISE OF HEAVEN

*IN JESUS NAME .
AMEN*

“ I imagine there is no pain more far-reaching and deeper than losing a child. My heart and prayers go out to you at this most difficult time. Mike was a great person with a huge heart. I met Mike in middle school and we remained friends throughout our adult life. I still remember he took me to our Garner middle school dance. We were always great friends and shared many laughs. I remember when he got his jeep and he was so excited, he would come to pick me up and we would ride all over the place laughing and just having good clean fun. Mr. and Mrs. Zisman, I am so sorry for your loss. I am going to continue to pray for you two to find peace. I feel as though I am the blessed one to have been graced by Mike's big heart and inviting personality. It is truly the mark of wonderful parents. Every bit of my heart goes out to you during this most difficult time. Heaven is a place nearby, so there's no need to say goodbye. Hold on to your memories, and let them guide you during this time of sadness.

Love Always
