“ Such a great loving person who would do anything and everything for anyone! I will always remember and cherish the moments and memories I've made with her. I loved every time my family and I would visit her and Uncle Dick, they made the 9 hour car ride more than worth it! She was always full of joy, jokes, and a lovable spirit.

May you rest peacefully GiGi!

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Michele in 1996, when I began my career at Block Distributing. Michele went above and beyond to first make me feel welcome, and then to help me learn the business. She was a beautiful person both inside and out. Thoughts and prayers for her family and friends.

“ Always a twinkle in her eye, ready to find what was funny, absurd in each situation. Michele knew how to do everything - always my go-to. She was a talented designer, had a great eye, was a natural cook, loved, loved her family and loved caring for Dick, always enjoying him. We really had fun together and, oh my, I will miss her in our lives. Life well lived, sweet Michele ❤️
