

Michelle Jennifer Nadela Campa

June 30, 1968 - November 4, 2021

Michelle Jennifer Nadela Campa, of San Antonio, went to be with the Lord Thursday, November 4, 2021. Michelle was born in Albany, New York on June 30, 1968 to Frida and Siegfredo Nadela Sr. who preceded her in death. She served in the legal department at USAA. She dedicated her life as a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and sister. Michelle was a devout Catholic. She kept our Lord at the center of her life, along with Mother Mary. She always put her family first and enjoyed life to the fullest no matter what challenges she was faced with. Michelle was a dedicated “softball mom”, never missing a game nor the opportunity to travel with her daughter, Kristen, and her favorite team to cheer them on.

Michelle is survived by her husband George Campa; her children, Alexa Nadela Kozlowski and her husband, Timothy, Brittany Campa Whisenhunt and her husband, Kevin and Kristen Campa; her granddaughter, Allison Nadela; her grandson, Cade; her brother, Siegfredo Nadela, Jr. and wife, Monica; her sister, Yvette Temple and her husband, George; her nieces, nephews and extended family. The family would like to thank the entire staff at Christus Santa Rosa for the wonderful care they gave Michelle. A special thanks for everyone who has given support and love through prayers, especially to our uncle and aunts, Dr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Farolan and Farah Nadela who have given endless support.
