“Hearing of Michelle’s passing was a painful reminder of life’s fragility. I had the honor to work alongside her and have beautiful memories that I cherish. Those of us who’ve been blessed to have known her grieve the loss of such a sweet and gentle soul. My heart goes out to her family of whom she often spoke of with great love.

I was truly blessed to have Michelle as my Work partner and my friend. In a short time we shared so many stories about our families and we would laugh and joke about how awkward and dorky we could Both be. Michelle was caring and giving and she did it unconditionally. She was always so calm and comforting to me. I have several memories of her comforting me. Whether she lent me a friendly ear or kind words she always made me feel better. One day at the office I was feeling overwhelmed and discouraged and I hadn’t left my desk. She knocked on my door and surprised me with my favorite Starbucks coffee and a puffy taco. I don’t think she realizes what a gift that was and how much I appreciated her. She is truly an angel. My deepest condolences to her husband, son, and parents-she spoke of you often and she always expressed how loved and happy she was.

“Michelle was always a kind hearted, caring and loving person. Michelle sat outside my office for many years and we had lots of good conversations. She often thought of me and called me to check in and catch me up on her life. She always shared her tasty cakes with me and made me feel like her taste tester. I was so proud of her and encouraged her to start her own business. She last checked in with me when she started her new job and as always had very nice things to say. Heaven surely gained an angel and I will truly miss her. My thoughts and prayers are with her family. She now is our guardian angel.

“I was so saddened to hear of Michelle’s passing. I worked across from her office, before I retired this past June. She started working with Life Safety Code when everyone was working from home, due to Covid. I know it was very hard for her, with no one being in the office for training, but I did the best I could to train here virtually. Michelle was a very happy go lucky kinda girl, very caring, and never complained. I’m so Blessed to have crossed paths with her, even if it was for such a short time. She will surely be missed. Condolences to her loved ones.....May She Rest In Peace.
