“ God has another Angel in heaven now. Tio Michel was a great uncle and a man to admire. He was devoted to his family and God. He was always there when family and friends needed him and leaves behind a great legacy and it shows in his family. He always knew how to have a good time whether going on trip to Acapulco, dancing at a family get together, or something as simple as going to a Chinese buffet to enjoy with the family. So many great memories to count that he leaves us all with and he will be truly missed. My prayers and condolences to the whole family during this time. Omar

“ It has been a wonderful blessing to our family when daughter, Kristen, married Alex and became part of the Canavati family. Miguel and Rosie have been a joy and their friendship has brought so much pleasure into our lives. Miguel’s physical presence will be greatly missed, but memories of his caring, humor, and cheerful smile will remain with us. Rosie, and all of your family, may God’s grace bring you comfort at this difficult time. Love, Marie Hiester

“ I remember when I first met Mr. Canavati. I went to school with his daughter Rosie, when I later found out that her dad was friends with my dad, his mechanic. After spending time with him, I realized why our dads were friends. Both hard headed and stubborn men, who lived their lives how they wanted to. He was a good man, and loved in his own way. He was a man of his time and will be missed greatly. He's at peace now and I will remember him fondly.
