

Miguel Antunez Garcia

July 25, 1959 - February 24, 2022

A loving and kind soul, Miguel Antunez Garcia went to be with the Lord on February 24, 2022, at the age of 62, in San Antonio, TX. He was born on July 25, 1959 in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. He is preceded in death by his parents, Jose and Francisca Garcia. Miguel is survived by his loving domestic partner of 24 years, Oscar Vela; adopted daughter, Monica, and numerous siblings, extended family members and friends.

Miguel was a hairstylist for many years and grew many friendships with his clients. He enjoyed being around and spending time with his friends. Miguel will always be remembered for being the life of the party, being such a free spirit and for being so caring and giving to everyone in his life.

Visitation will be on Saturday, March 5, 2022 from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. Services will conclude in the chapel.

“ Miguel was a sweetheart. He gave me two pairs of FIESTA Earrings, when Oscar was doing my hair at the salon. When I wear them, I see Miguel BIG SMILE ON HIS FACE, when he gave them to me. You will be miss Miguel. May you Rest in Peace in Jesus Arms. Amen. Love, Mrs Julia Castro and Mr. John Castro as (AKE PaPo the Clown.)

“ My husband and I met Miguel and Oscar in 2005, we became instant family. He always had kind words to say and very spiritual. We were always invited to their beauty shop on O Connors. We have fond and sweet memories of Miguel. We pray that Oscar, his daughter and friends will find comfort in their sweet memories of him now and in the years to come. Miguel will always be remembered and missed.
