“ Man Mike and did a lot together. Two memories. He was a pool playing dude. I was so so. If you remember Andy's Pool Hall was on Blanco. We would go there and when he saw some guys he would play first and bet and let them beat him. He told me to go next. I would win sometimes but usually lost. Then he would talk his stuff and challenge them again. Always kicked there butts. We did this there and a place on Fredericksburg. $30 to $50 bucks a night. Hey that was good then with $0.19/gallon gas. He was a good quarterback but some guy named Kramer Was better. We would hook up with all our buddies and challenge the seniors. Always won good times. Saw him at one of reunions. I'm gonna miss you man. Jeanette and I will always remember you man. REST IN PEACE.

“ Mike loved fishing.
Mike loved all sports and the excitement of putting a wager down!
Mike loved doing card and magic tricks.
Mike love BBQ'ing and cooking.
Mike loved dogs and had several through the years.
Mike loved everyone he came into contact with and loved to be the center of attention.
Mike had a larger than life personality!
Mike never married but, was still happy in his own skin.
When the chips were down and he knew you needed him, he ALWAYS came through.
Our friendship started when we were 9 years old.

“ We both went to principal's office the last day of 6th grade for ringing the fire bell!

We caught several dozen fish off the "Mary Lou" fishing boat in Rockport, TX when we were kids.

We use to listen to Astro's baseball on the radio religiously, when we were kids.

We double dated one night and Mike ended up sitting in a red ant bed, lol!

We each got our first kiss from a girl in sixth grade at Jackson Keller Elementary.

We drove to New Orleans with Billy Brown and Richard Higbie one day after we graduated high school. The drinking age in LA at the time was 18. What a trip!

The last few years, Mike spent every Thanksgiving and Christmas with our family, because we considered him our family.

Mike had the biggest Heart of anyone I have ever known!

Mike was the most stubborn person I have ever known!

Mike was a Momma's boy, and took care of his mother when she had cancer. He loved her dearly!

Throughout Mike's many medical problems over the years, he NEVER complained about his situation. That still amazes me, with all the very serious medical issues he had.

His mind and his heart willed him to do things and want to do things until his heart finally gave out.

We had an amazing 54 years of friendship! Giving of each other.

Rest In Peace now my best friend and brother!
