

Mildred J. Doebbler

December 26, 1928 - December 29, 2014

The long goodbye ended peacefully for Mildred Jane Sorrell Doebbler on December 29, 2014. Surrounded by her children, Mildred's struggle with Alzheimer's disease is finally over and she can be at peace. Mildred epitomized beauty, grace and elegance which she combined with a feisty spirit and deep love of her family.

Born on December 26, 1928, Mildred was preceded in death by her husband, Howard A. Doebbler, Jr. as well as her parents, Arie and James Napoleon Sorrell and grandson Clay Bowen. She is survived by her children, Howard A. Doebbler, III Buddy and wife Reesa, Beth A. Doebbler Felder and husband, John L. Felder, VI, and James A. Doebbler. Lovingly known by her family as "DerDer", she is survived by her grandsons, Troy B. Doebbler, John L. Felder VII and wife MacKinzie, and Ryan C. Felder. Great-grandsons, John L. Felder VIII and Harrison L. Felder also survive her. Mildred leaves behind many nieces and nephews, as well.

Mildred will be deeply missed and always loved. Her spirit will be with us and will surround us always. The family will be forever grateful for the loving care given to Mildred over the last two years by Colonial Gardens Alzheimer's Residence where she was treated as if she were a cherished member of the family.

Visitation/ viewing will be held on Saturday, January 3, 2015 from 9am to 11am at Mission Park South Funeral Home and will be followed by an immediate graveside service at 11:15am at Mission Burial Park South. In lieu of flowers, donations in Mildred's honor can be made to Alzheimer's Organization or a charitable organization of your choice.
