Mildred Geest passed away peacefully at home on January 16, 2019. A family visitation will be held on Saturday, January 26, 2019 from 9:00 a.m to 10:00 a.m. followed by a public visitation from 10:00 a.m to 12:00 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North, located at 3401 Cherry Ridge Dr., San Antonio, TX 78230. Mildred was born on October 11, 1921 in Stillwell, OK to Charles and Mayme Adams. She married Eugene Bilbrey just prior to WWII and they had three daughters. She was widowed in 1964 and continued to live at her home on Prue Road in San Antonio, TX. She met and married Rheuben Earl Geest in 1971 and they celebrated 35 years together before Earl's death in 2006. She spent her final years surrounded by loved ones in Tennessee. She had a green thumb, read her bible daily, sewed, quilted, crocheted, and everyone loved her cooking and baking. Most importantly though, Mildred's lasting legacy is her faithfulness to Christ which she modeled daily through her patience, kindness, generosity, and loving service.

She is survived by her three daughters, Sandra Boag, Mary Diane (Deenie) Stevens, Terri Sokoloski (son-in-law Larry), and stepdaughter Sandra Anderson (son-in-law Doug). Her grandchildren include Alisa Cardiff, Paula Oliver, Mike Stevens, John Boag III, John Paul Stevens, Melissa Boag, Debra “ GG was one of the sweetest ladies I knew. She and PawPaw welcomed everyone into their little log home and treated us like family. She was always a smiling face at church and loved talking to all of the children. She aged gracefully and remained sweet, soft spoken, and kind. Her legacy of how a good Christian should act will live on not only in her family, but also those who met her along the way.
