Mildred met the love of her life, Albert A. Isennock Jr., while he was serving in the U.S. Navy during World War II. Their love story began during his service and blossomed into a lifelong partnership. They were married one year later and shared 67 wonderful years of marriage before Albert preceded her in death. Mildred's legacy continues through her three grandchildren, Clint, Scott, and Mike Isennock, and her four great-grandchildren, Ryan, Ash, Kelsie, and Jarret. She also leaves behind a circle of extended family members and friends, with a special mention of dear friends Pat Branson and Irma Martinez, who held a special place in her heart.

Mildred's memory will live on through the love she shared with her family and friends, and her warmth and grace will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

“ Randy Isennock is my brother-in-law married to my sister Doris. Though we were not around Mrs. Isennock but a few times, we recall having a wonderful time sharing a meal with her at a local Mexican Food Restaurant. It was apparent to us that she was a very kind and caring person. God bless her and her family.

“ While our hearts mourn knowing Aunt Midge is no longer with us here in physical form, our faith teaches us true love is not about holding on but rather in letting go. We rejoice knowing she is fully healed and whole, in the arms of our Heavenly Father, and reunited with Uncle Al and our Taitte family members in heaven. Much like the annual Christmas family gatherings at Nanny Taitte’s, we now know Heaven’s dinner table is full and complete, the hugs are aplenty, the conversation lively, the laughs endless.

Your legacy lives on through your family and extends out in countless lives you have forever touched. We love you and are so very blessed and thankful for the time we had you in our lives. Rest in peace. Matthew 25:23

“What can I say about Mama Midge (I called her mom under my breath..lol.) I loved her so much, I couldn't wait to go back to her house the following week to do what I needed to do & just be there with her & do whatever else she wanted me to do I would do it, she loved the way I organized her things.

There were times that she wanted a hamburger but she wanted a whataburger with cheese, mayonnaise & no mustard & a chocolate shake, she's so cute but I had to buy one for me too & eat with her, so I would.

One day we were talking about dogs that had and that when they'd sit down to eat the puppy would be sitting by her chair waiting for food. I told her that I had a small dog and I asked her cautiously "then can I have permission to bring my dog when I come over?" She got excited and told me that I can bring Abbi over, so I did and she just loved her.

I can keep going and going but I won't, I'll stop right here. I love her to death, it broke my heart when I couldn't go be with her on my regular days. I always think of her, even more before she passed. She was always in my prayers and always will be. I'm going to miss her so much!

REST IN ETERNAL PEACE MAMA MIDGE!!
