“ Auntie B, Uncle Milton was so good to me. Always fun to be around at the lake, and always ready to help when I needed a ride or help moving on at least two occasions. I loved to play pool with him, but I only won when he let me! Mom and Dad and I will surely pray for you, Kurt, Robin, Charlie and Kelly in the days and weeks to come. Uncle Milton had a lot of love to give. I will miss him a lot.

“ Milton was much more than a brother-in-law. He became like a brother in every sense of the word. He was a friend, a helper and quick to see a need and quietly and cheerfully went about meeting that need. When it came to cars and car repairs, I can't count the times he rolled up his sleeves and took care of it, or offered perfect advice on how to fix. In other words, he was always 'there' in the present tense and ready to help. And then his sense of humor, 'dry', and looking for someone to snooker, and he was expert! My, will he be missed. But we have all these wonderful memories that we will keep forever.
